

War Memorial Agenda

March 13, 2018

At The War Memorial

5:30 p.m.

I New Events Request

- a. Haitian Comm. Partners (HCP) 5TH Annual Gala April 7, 2018-Marline Amedee

- b. Frederick Douglass Neighborhood Association April 12, 2018 Noon-7 PM – Lynn Smith (Charles Everett Pace, renowned scholar and actor, will bring his one man performance art to the Brockton War Memorial Building at 156 West Elm Street. His address will focus on the Massachusetts Anti-Slavery Society, William Lloyd Garrison, and Douglass in Brockton)

- c. The Haven- April 28, 2018 - Tara Hall
(Fundraiser for the Haven. The Haven seeks to be a refuge during the day for those who may be experiencing homelessness. The Haven provides a safe and supportive place for all who enter to rest, read, write, create, learn, and build community. Everyone at The Haven- members and staff alike- can take steps towards living into their intrinsic value.)

- d. Criolas Unidas – May 26, 2018
(A non-profit working on Domestic Violence issues looking to hold a fundraiser)

Members: Richard Bath, Miles Jackson, David Sylvestre and Mayor Bill Carpenter