Jayline Brandao invited to City Hall by Mayor Robert Sullivan
9-year old who saved her parents' lives will be honored by the Mayor

BROCKTON, MA – In recognition of her bravery, courage, and swift action in saving the lives of her parents, Jayline Brandao and her family have been invited to City Hall to be honored by Mayor Robert F. Sullivan.

During the week of the Fall Nor'Easter, Jayline courageously saved her parents who were severely affected by carbon monoxide poisoning. Jayline utilized the facial recognition on her father's iPhone to unlock the phone and call 911. Her swift action saved the lives of her parents.

Mayor Sullivan plans to honor Jayline and her family at the Mayor's Office on Wednesday, November 10th at 5 pm. All media are invited to attend.
