RESOLVES:

37. WHEREAS, The Massachusetts legislature enacted Chapter 59, section 5 (C) allowing for residential property tax exemptions for certain properties, and,

WHEREAS, The Department of Revenue published information about this exemption and the types of communities which adopt the exemption, noting: Large cities or towns with many nonowner-occupied properties like apartment buildings,” adopt this program, and,

WHEREAS, The City of Brockton does not currently offer this exemption, and,

WHEREAS, It is appropriate to discuss and evaluate whether this annual exemption would be of benefit to owner-occupied, residential property in the city;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

The Chair of the Board of Assessors appear before a committee of the Brockton City Council to discuss the residential tax exemption program, how it would affect the amounts collected from owner-occupied properties, and to prepare a written summary of how the city could implement of MGL Chapter 59, Section 5C, with various exemption amounts which could be included in any such program.

38. WHEREAS, The City of Brockton has formally adopted a Poet Laureate and Youth Poet Laureate Honorary positions;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:
