

The City of Brockton Health Department in conjunction with Shared Services Agreement (SSA) Partners, the Towns of Abington, Avon, Stoughton, and Whitman present a
Public Health Symposium

CHALLENGES IN PUBLIC HEALTH: GAPS AND BARRIERS

Friday, December 12, 2025 1:00–4:00 pm

The Shaw's Center One Feinberg Way, Brockton

We welcome providers and vendors to set up tables to showcase the services that they offer, and to share resource materials, literature, and giveaways.

Keynote Speaker

Dr. Jessica Zeidman

Chief Medical Officer and Deputy Commissioner of the Massachusetts Department of Public Health

Panel One: Shared Services Coalition

City of Brockton

Town of Abington

Town of Avon

Town of Stoughton

Town of Whitman

Panel Two: Health Service Providers

Dr. Kenneth Lawson, Chief Medical Officer/Admin, BMC-South

Dr. Maria Celli, President & CEO, BNHC

Ms. Bethany Griles, Program Coordinator, OLRH, DPH

Rev. Dr. Carlo D. Celestin, Clergy, and Psychotherapist, The Sentinel Ministry

Contact Jessica Monteiro at jemonteiro@cobma.us or 508-894-1479

PN-5

Public Health Excellence
Shared Services Group

Join us! We will be presenting Community Health Assessment data collected from the City of Brockton and our four Shared Services Agreement partners. This information highlights key gaps, barriers, and social determinants of health affecting our communities. These insights will play a vital role as we shape our public health vision and objectives during these unprecedented times.

